UT Charter School Substitute Positions

UT University Charter School, within The Division of Diversity and Community Engagement at The University of Texas at Austin, has campuses across the state, serving some of the most vulnerable students.

Substitute teachers are needed to help support our diverse students who reside in residential treatment centers, psychiatric hospitals or temporary shelters across Texas that are operated by our facility partners.

Job Description

General knowledge of curriculum and instruction. Desire to work with at-risk students in a facility setting. Strong organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills.

Maintain awareness of individual differences, i.e.: culture, disability, ethnicity, gender, race, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status or other factors, and respond in ways that acknowledge the other person's perspective, experiences and voice.

These positions require fingerprinting.
